Payment and Refund Regulations

Payment Regulation

It is the family or guardian's duty to ensure the financial obligations to the school are discharged promptly, even in the case where their employer may be paying the fees on their behalf. Even though a student has been accepted by or is enrolled in Aoba, if financial obligations are not met by documented dates, the student's enrollment will be cancelled.

Tuition, School Lunch, Support Fees

Tuition, School Lunch, Support Fees are payable by semesters.

One Payment Option	Due by 20 June (or payable at the time of registration for new students)
Two Payment Option	Due by 20 June and 20 November (or payable at the time of registration for new students)

Bus Fee

Bus fee for the full school year is billed with the first tuition invoice. For students who wish to use the bus only from the second semester, the application is accepted only if seats are available as of January 8. For students entering school for the second semester, the fee is calculated based on the school's half quarter.

Building Maintenance Fee and Family Community Membership Fee

Building Maintenance Fee and Family Community Membership Fee are billed in full with the first tuition invoice and are not divided for mid-year entry.

Enrollment after the School Year Commences

For students entering school after the designated day in November or the designated day in April, tuition is calculated based on the school's four quarters. A student's attendance for any portion of a quarter requires payment of the entire quarter. Full payment of the Building Maintenance Fee and Family Community Membership Fee are also required, regardless of the length of attendance.

Re-entry

For re-entry of students who have left the school, the Building Development Fee will be billed in full and Registration Fee as follows:
